My Pet

I have a pet at home. It's a dog. His name is Kilimanjaro. It's a big name, but the dog is a big dog too. Why did we give him this name? Because in the year when I got the dog, all dogs' names had to begin with the letter 'K', and I knew the name Kilimanjaro from a map.

Kilimanjaro – Kil, for short – is a very good sort of dog when he is in the middle of a large garden. But our flat is too small for him.

This morning, after breakfast, I saw all the cups on the floor. It was Kil's work.

A minute later I heard a great noise in the garden. It was Kil running after the cat. The cat was up a tree, and Kil was at the foot, saying: 'Come down, and play with me!'

When Kil likes you, he gives you his paw – and you fall back, sitting down on the floor.

I like dogs. They are very good friends. They do not say unpleasant things to you, and when they look at you, there is a warm light in their eyes.

You will find these words in the Vocabulary:

year	for short	light	up a tree	fall back
map	middle	noise	paw	unpleasant

Five Little Dogs

Five little dogs
At the house door.
One runs in,
Then there are four.

Two little dogs
Sit in the sun.
One runs away,
Then there is one.

Four little dogs
Playing near a tree.
One runs away
Then there are three.

One little dog
Plays here with May.
Tom runs to see him,
But he runs away.

Three little dogs
Say: "What can we do?"
One runs away
Then there are two.

Five little dogs
As happy as can be
All run and play
Under the big tree.

My Dog

I have a funny black and white dog,
He never barks at me, never.
With a cold nose and a nice face,
And eyes that look so clever!
And he is my good friend
As only a dog can be.
And we have a very nice time
Because he plays with me.

The Wind

Oh, I want to know
What does the wind do?
Where does the wind go,
Mother, when it does not blow?

No one can tell me,
Nobody knows,
Where the wind comes from,
Where the wind goes.

Weather

"What is the weather going to be today?"
"Rain or snow?" the people say.
They look at the sky, all woolly grey,
And watch the way the wind is blowing
And they suddenly know
Because it's suddenly snowing!

For the End of the Day

And now at last the sun
Is going down behind the wood,
And I am very happy,
For I know that I've been good.

On my whiteboard

On my whiteboard I can draw
One little house with one green door,
Two brown gates that open wide,
Three red steps that lead inside
For little chimneys painted white
Five little windows shining bright,
Six yellow daffodils straight and tall,
Growing up against the wall.

Do your best

Do your best, your very best;
And do it every day.
Little boys and little girls,
That is the wisest way.

No matter what you try to do,
At home or at your school,
Always do your very best,
There is no better rule.

So if you read your little book,
Or if you learn to spell
Or if you play with hoop or ball,
Be sure to do it well.

Lazy Mary

Lazy Mary, will you get up, will you get up, will you get up, will you get up,
Lazy Mary, will you get up,
Will you get up today?

No, no, Mother, I won't get up,
I won't get up, I won't get up,
No, no, Mother, I won't get up,
I won't get up today.

Clocks and watches

Our great
Steeple clock
Goes Tick-Tock,
Tick-Tock;

Our small
Mantel clock
Goes Tick-Tack, Tick-Tack,
Tick-Tack, Tick-Tack.

Our little Pocket watch
Goes Tick-a-tacker, Tick-a-tacker,
Tick-a-tacker, tick.

Some Good Rules

Early to bed,
Early to rise,
Makes a man healthy,
Wealthy and wise.

After dinner sit awhile,
After supper walk a mile.

Let us try to be polite
In everything we do.
Remember always to say "Please"
And don't forget "Thank you."

My Hand

This is the father short and stout.
This is the mother with children all about.
This is the brother, tall you see.
This is the sister with dolly on her knee.
This is the baby, sure to grow.
And here is the family all in a row.

Can you tell me

Can you tell me,
Can you tell me,
What little boys do?
They run and jump,
They run and jump,
So I will jump too.

Can you tell me,
Can you tell me,
What little people do?
They play and work,
They play and work,
So I will work too.

Can you tell me,
Can you tell me,
What little girls do?
They dance and skip,
They dance and skip,
So I will skip too.

Can you tell me,
Can you tell me,
What little babies do?
They eat and sleep,
They eat and sleep,
So I will sleep too.

Elizabeth, Elspeth, Betty, and Bess
They all went together to look at a nest.
They saw a nest with four eggs in it,
They all took one and left three in it!
Why is it so?

"How old are you, little boy?" asked an old man a little boy in the park.
"Six," came a quick answer.
"Six," repeated the old man, "and yet you are not as tall as my umbrella."
"And how old is your umbrella?" asked the boy.

The Grand New Year

It's coming, boys.
It's almost here.
It's coming, girls,
The Grand New Year.

A Year to be glad in,
Not to be sad in,
A year to live in,
To gain, not to give in.

The New Year's Tree

Oh, New Year's Tree,
Oh, New Year's Tree,

How green are your sweet branches!
You bloom not only when it's warm,
But also in the winter storm.

Oh, New Year's Tree!
Oh, New Year's Tree!

How sweet are your green branches!

We Wish You a Merry Christmas

1. We wish you a Merry Christmas,
(3 times)
And a Happy New Year!
2. Oh, bring us some figgy pudding,
(3 times)
And bring it right here.
3. We won't go until we get some,
(3 times)
So bring it right here.
4. We all like our figgy pudding,
(3 times)
So bring it right here.

5. We wish you a Merry Christmas,
(3 times)
And a Happy New Year.
(Refrain)

April

Green blades of grass
Yellow crocus shoots.

Go deep, dark roots.
Go high, bright flowers.

Goodbye, snow boots!

Good Morning

Two little robins,
What is it they say?
Get up and be happy
The whole bright day:

You three little sisters –
Ann, Kitty and Sue,
We two little brothers
Come singing to you.

And when two brother robins
Come singing together,
Joy comes with the robins,
And sunshiny weather.

Which Is Better — To Be Ill or To Be Well?

A friend came one day to a house where there were three children: a boy and two girls.

Two of them – the boy and one of the girls – were ill. They were in bed and all the members of the family were sorry for them. They brought toys and nice things to eat and gave them to the children who were ill in bed.

The other little girl sat in a corner and cried. The friend, who liked children, went up to her and asked, 'Why are you crying? You are not ill.'

'No', said the little girl, 'I am not ill, so they don't bring me any presents.'

Hurray! School Is Over! Summer Is Here!

There is so much to do on a long summer day. I am ready to play. I will play in the park. I will play in the forest. I will play by the river. I will play on the beach. I will go to the country. I will go to the seaside. I will go to the mountains. I will visit my grandparents. I will visit my cousins. I will visit my friends. I will go fishing. I will go for a picnic. I will play football. I will skip. I will have fun.

English

English is a three-level course which satisfies the new National Curriculum requirements in Moldova.

- English encourages pupils' interaction and communication;
- Provides systematic development of grammar, vocabulary, reading, writing, listening, speaking and pronunciation, integrated throughout;
- Raises pupils' awareness of cultural diversity;
- Makes it possible to check progress in an informal way through activities which involve discovery, problem-solving, language use and creative response.

Each level of English contains:

- The Pupil's Book – a beautifully illustrated textbook with stimulating activities that are based on child-friendly vocabulary and are pupil-oriented.
- The Workbook – a collection of activities that mirror the Pupil's Book content and provide additional material for classroom and home use.
- The Teacher's Book – a guide for teachers.
